JUDGMENT

(ON MOTION TO APPROVE A SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND CLASS COUNSEL FEES AND FOR OTHER RELIEF)

[1] CONSIDERING that pursuant to a judgment rendered on January 21, 2020, Plaintiff was authorized by the Court to bring, for settlement purposes only, a civil liability and securities class action pursuant to article 574 of the Code of Civil Procedure and article 225.4 of the Quebec Securities Act (the QSA), against The Stars Group Inc. (TSGI) and the Individual Defendants on behalf of the following class:

- i) "Primary Market Sub-Class": all persons and entities, wherever they may reside or may be domiciled, other than Excluded Persons, who, during the Class Period, purchased TSGI's securities in an Offering and held all or some of those securities until at least March 23, 2016;
- ii) "Secondary Market Sub-Class": all persons and entities, wherever they may reside or may be domiciled, other than Excluded Persons, who, during the Class Period, purchased TSGI's securities in the secondary market and held all or some of those securities until at least March 23, 2016, and who:
 - are residents in Canada or were residents in Canada at the time of such acquisitions regardless of the location of the exchange on which they acquired TSGI's securities; or
 - acquired TSGI's securities in the secondary market in Canada or elsewhere, other than in the United States;

(the Class Members)

[2] CONSIDERING that settlement discussions between the parties resulted in a settlement agreement dated November 25, 2019 (the Agreement);

[3] CONSIDERING that the Agreement provides for a monetary payment by the Contributing Parties of $30,000,000 (the Settlement Amount), which shall definitively and permanently resolve, settle and release and discharge all claims asserted, or which could have been asserted, against Defendants by Plaintiff on his own behalf and/or on behalf of the Class;

[4] CONSIDERING Plaintiff's Motion to Approve a Settlement Agreement and for Other Relief, dated March 9, 2020 (the Motion);

[5] CONSIDERING that by way of the Motion, Plaintiff seeks an order inter alia:

- a. Approving the Agreement;
- b. Approving the Second Notice to Class Members;
- c. Approving the Plan of Allocation;
- d. Approving the Claim Form;
- e. Setting the date by which each Class Member must file a Claim Form and all required supporting documentation (the Claims Bar Deadline) with Trilogy Class Action Services (the Administrator);
- f. Approving Class Counsel Fees;

g. Approving the payment of the levies and other payments, as applicable, to the Fonds d'aide aux actions collectives (the FAAC);

[6] CONSIDERING the material filed in the Court record, including the Declaration of Eli Karp, sworn March 6, 2020, the Declaration of Pierre Derome, sworn March 5, 2020, the Affidavit of Paul Battaglia, sworn March 26, 2020 and the Affidavit of Mtre. Jonathan Nuss, sworn March 27, 2020;

[7] CONSIDERING articles 590, 593, 595 and 596 of the Code of Civil Procedure;

- The payment of $20,000 to Plaintiff

[8] CONSIDERING that the Agreement provides that $29,980,000 of the Settlement Amount will be paid to settle the claims of Class Members, and $20,000 will be paid to Plaintiff to settle his individual QSA claim;

[9] CONSIDERING that under the proposed Plan of Allocation, the Settlement Amount is allocated between the Primary and Secondary Market Sub-Class in the following proportion:

- a. $2,500,000 to the Primary Market Sub-Class; and
- b. $27,480,000 to the Secondary Market Sub-Class;

[10] CONSIDERING that the FAAC submits that the payment of $20,000 to Plaintiff to settle his individual QSA claim grants Plaintiff undue benefit not available to other Class Members and contravenes to article 593 of the Civil Code of Procedure;

[11] CONSIDERING that all parties to the Agreement agreed and confirmed to the Court that the payment of $20,000 to Plaintiff does not constitute an essential and major element of the Agreement and is distinct from the other provisions of the Agreement;

[12] CONSIDERING that all parties to the Agreement accept that, should the Court refuse the granting to Plaintiff of $20,000 to settle his personal QSA claim, said amount would revert to the Secondary Market Sub-Class Settlement Amount;

[13] CONSIDERING that:

- (a) Plaintiff is a Class Member and as such, should the Agreement be approved, he would submit a claim to the Administrator under the Plan of Allocation as provided for in section 15.4 of the Agreement, in addition to receiving $20,000 to settle his personal QSA claim;
- (b) as a consequence, Plaintiff would be granted double indemnity under the Agreement for his individual claim and as such, would benefit from undue advantage in comparison with the other Class Members;
- (c) the payment of $20,000 to Plaintiff ultimately represents an honorarium provided for his important time and effort that he has put in the Class

Action as Class representative, as further described in his sworn declaration;¹

- (d) although other Canadian jurisdictions allow representative plaintiffs to receive an honorarium for their implication in class proceedings, the Court must apply the provisions and rules of the Code of Civil Procedure;
- (e) Article 593 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that the Court may award the representative plaintiff an indemnity for disbursements and an amount to cover legal costs and the lawyer's professional fee;
- (f) recent case law² has referred to this provision with a view to refusing an award to the representative plaintiff to compensate for his time and effort put in the class action; the Court of Appeal confirmed this interpretation as follows:³

[43] Cet article précise donc sans ambiguïté que la fonction de représentant d'un groupe dans le cadre d'une action collective doit être exercée à titre gratuit et ne doit pas être rattachée à une rémunération quelconque à cette fin, ce que la jurisprudence en vertu du nouveau Code de procédure civile confirme fermement depuis. Les commentaires du ministre de la Justice du Québec portant sur l'article 593 C.p.c. sont d'ailleurs limpides à cet égard :

Cet article est de droit nouveau. Il vise à indemniser le représentant des débours qu'il fait pour mener à bien l'action collective, sans lui allouer une rémunération pour le temps consacré à l'affaire. [...]

(References omitted)

- (g) thus, to avoid any conflict of interest, the plaintiff representative should not be remunerated at any given time;

[14] CONSIDERING that for these reasons, the Court refuses the $20,000 payment to Plaintiff as stipulated in the Agreement; this amount, as agreed by the parties, will revert to the Settlement Amount for the Secondary Market Sub-Class;

[15] CONSIDERING the applicable criteria to determine the reasonableness and fairness of a proposed settlement of a class action;⁴

[16] CONSIDERING that the negotiations between the parties were extensive, conducted in good faith and at arm's length, after almost four years of hard-fought litigation;

[17] CONSIDERING that the Agreement represents a negotiated compromise of the disputed claims, to avoid the further expense, inconvenience, distraction of burdensome litigation and risks inherent to this uncertain, complex and protracted litigation;

[18] CONSIDERING that Defendants have denied and continue to deny each and all of the claims and allegations of wrongdoing made by Plaintiff in the Class Action proceedings;

[19] CONSIDERING the significant litigation risks specific to this class action and Plaintiff's burden of establishing the liability of some or all of the Defendants with regards to the alleged misrepresentations and negligent conduct;

[20] CONSIDERING that the proposed Plan of Allocation creates a claims-based process for authorized claimants to seek compensation from the Settlement Amount, net of administration and other expenses, which will be divided equally on a per share basis for each Eligible Security (as defined in the Plan of Allocation);

[21] CONSIDERING that the proposed Plan of Allocation allocates less than 10% of the Settlement Amount to the Primary Market Sub-Class;

[22] CONSIDERING that the Primary Market Sub-Class was comprised of only three sophisticated institutional investors and no retail investors and that it was unlikely that the Primary Market Sub-Class would have suffered significant damages, given the price at which the shares were offered to the purchasers that comprise this Sub-Class;

[23] CONSIDERING the statutory damages cap set out by the QSA which limits the amount payable by TSGI and the Individual Defendants unless it could be proved that those Individual Defendants made misrepresentations intentionally (the Damages Cap);

[24] CONSIDERING that the Settlement Amount, in light of the maximum liability under the Damages Cap and the calculated TSGI's market capitalization, appears reasonable and fair for the Class Members;

[25] CONSIDERING the anticipated time and additional cost to obtain recovery for the Class Members had the parties not agreed to the proposed settlement;

⁴ Pellemans v. Lacroix, 2011 QCCS 1345, para. 20 and 21; Markus c. Reebok Canada inc., 2012 QCCS 3562, para. 20-23; Halfon v. Moose International Inc., 2017 QCCS 4300, para. 21-23.

[26] CONSIDERING Class Counsel's experience and expertise in securities class action matters and their recommendation that Plaintiff accept the proposed settlement;

[27] CONSIDERING that no Class Member has submitted any objection to the Agreement or opted-out of the Action;

[28] CONSIDERING that the Court is satisfied, in light of the foregoing, of the allegations of the Motion, of the material filed in the Court record and of the representations of the parties' counsel that the Agreement is fair, reasonable and in the best interest of the Class Members;

- The Class Counsel Fees

[29] CONSIDERING that Class Counsel seek the Court's approval of their fees, plus applicable taxes and payment of disbursements, plus applicable taxes, totalling $8,853,047.08;

[30] CONSIDERING the submissions of Class Counsel;

[31] CONSIDERING the factors that the Court must take into account to assess the fairness and reasonableness of legal fees;⁵

[32] CONSIDERING the convention of a professional mandate (the Convention) signed by Plaintiff in May 2016;

[33] CONSIDERING that pursuant to the Convention, Class Counsel is entitled to request, as legal fees, payment of an amount of 30% of the Settlement Amount plus taxes;

[34] CONSIDERING that Class Counsel reduced the fees sought to 25% of the Settlement Amount plus taxes;

[35] CONSIDERING that the FAAC has paid $143,779.83 to fund disbursements and that Class Counsel undertake to reimburse such amount to the FAAC;

[36] CONSIDERING that prior to authorization, Class Counsel conducted an extensive analysis into the business affairs and financial reporting practices of TSGI and the Individual Defendants, and consulted and retained experts;

[37] CONSIDERING that the Motion record for Authorization was complex, voluminous and detailed;

[38] CONSIDERING that Class Counsel financed this case for over four years, undertook important risk and allocated significant time, effort and resources to achieve the settlement for the Class;

[39] CONSIDERING that additional time must be taken into consideration for post-settlement work;

[40] CONSIDERING Class Counsel's experience and expertise, their time devoted to this Class Action and the favorable result achieved for the Class Members;

[41] CONSIDERING that the Court considers that Class Counsel fees and disbursements are fair and reasonable;
